

BOOKMAKING WORKSHOP

Sunday, 24 May 2015, 9:00am - 4:30pm
Montessori East

A Workshop for 3-12 Teachers and Assistants

Alison Awes – Director of Elementary Training at the Montessori Center of Minnesota, Assoziation Montessori Schweiz

Please join us for many hands-on activities to enhance artistic expression in your classroom with children or help you make materials for your primary or elementary environment. Included in the day's activities will be instruction on making accordion books, necklace books, and hinged books.

Required items to bring: Each participant should bring scissors, glue stick and a straight edge or ruler. You will be making books to take home!

Optional items to bring: bone folder, books children have made in your classroom that you would like to share, embellishments or collage materials that you would like to use to decorate your books, any special poem or quote that you would like to include in a book.

Registrations will close two weeks before the workshop due to the time needed for preparation of materials for this workshop.

REGISTRATION: Online at montessori.org.au or return the form overleaf.
