MAF has undergone a process of strategic review over the last year and a half and we are entering 2015 with a renewed sense of purpose and direction. With increased capacity and a more diverse revenue base, we are looking at how we can maximise services to our key constituents. We are also in the process of implementing a new divisional structure that enables us to have a dedicated team of people focusing on the key needs of those constituents, encompassing Montessori Independent Schools Australia, Montessori Early Childhood Australia, and Montessori Centre Management Australia.

During the 2015 Consultation Forums we will give you an update on our strategic direction and operational initiatives and continue to focus on consultation with schools and centres to seek your advice and views on what you would like from your national body. In particular, we will focus on the key issues affecting schools and centres, as well as provide a brief update on our Montessori initiatives supporting pregnancy and parenting, older Australians, and remote and Indigenous communities.

Come and join other heads of schools, school executives, board members and centre directors for a focused session where we listen to your needs and views. We want to hear what you have to say and we want everyone to be on a journey to bring Montessori to more children in Australia and contribute to the global Montessori perspective. Dinner will follow so that you can take the opportunity to network with your colleagues. Feel free to email any issues or topics you'd like addressed.
