DO YOU FEEL YOU ARE:

- Confused about what is and isn't required by ACEQCA in relation to observations and planning?
- Moving the same piece of information multiple times and unsure how you will use this information to inform you and help the child?
- Drowning in paperwork?

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN:

- Exploring different aspects of observation in the context of the planning cycle?
- Discussing different methods of effective documentation and record keeping?
- Finding out how you can save yourself time and energy while meeting the needs of the child?

Observations and documentation should be embedded into each and every day. When done effectively this does not need to take up large amounts of time; resulting in missed or rushed lunches, staying late or taking things home to finish over the weekend!

Come along to find out how you can create order out of what is often the chaos of paperwork.

"It is imperative that a teacher understand and appreciate his position as an observer."
(Montessori, The Discovery of the Child)

Please note there are limited places available. All participants are asked to bring along samples of their observation and record keeping forms for discussion and feedback in small groups.
